OVERVIEW

This is our most complete Uttarakhand journey, linking the Bhagirathi valley in Garhwal with the Alaknanda, the Chopta meadows and the quieter ridges of Kumaon.

It suits riders who want variety: big rivers, pilgrim towns, forests and high viewpoints, with a pace that leaves time to explore.

Who is it for: Riders comfortable with long days on mountain roads.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Harsil valley: Apple orchards and deodar forest along the Bhagirathi.
- Chopta meadows: Rhododendron forest and alpine meadows below Tungnath.

- Mana village: One of the last villages before the Tibet border.
